WHAT IS RECRUITING 101?

Whether you are an athlete who desires to be recruited, an athlete who is currently being recruited or a parent, the recruiting process can be confusing and overwhelming. This workshop is designed to guide athletes and their families through the process, empowering the recruit with the knowledge needed to make the best decision for his or her future. A binder of recruiting information is included.

WHAT IS HOOPSQUEST?

HoopsQuest is your source for individual and team skill development, S.A.Q. training, recruit advisement, game film analysis and more! We provide services to help you achieve your basketball goals. Visit www.hoopsquest.com for more information.

KATHLEEN WEBER – SPEAKER

Kathleen has eleven years of experience coaching Division I basketball at DePaul University, the University of Notre Dame and the University of North Carolina at Asheville. For past four years she has trained elite high school, college, and professional athletes.

DAVID ADELMAN – SPEAKER

David Adelman has fifteen years of experience coaching high school, Division I and III basketball, and served as an assistant coach and general manager of a minor league professional team. In the past two years he has assisted in the recruitment of five players playing Division I and II basketball.

Other speakers will include current college players.
