Mission Statement

UNC Asheville is a selective, public liberal arts institution. UNCA's Intercollegiate Athletic Program reflects the attitudes and values underlying the University's overall mission: academic excellence, diversity, equity, integrity, service, and accomplishment. The UNCA athletics program contributes to this liberal arts culture in two ways. First, athletics programs foster a sense of community and pride by fielding NCAA Division I teams and developing talented student-athletes who successfully represent UNCA in competition and reflect the University's commitment to overall excellence. Accordingly, the athletics program encourages an atmosphere of respect for self and others through the development of ethical conduct, sportsmanship, leadership, and citizenship and provides equitable opportunities for all students and staff, including women, minorities and individuals of all sexual identities. Second, the program provides an additional campus experience for capable students to grow and develop academically, personally, socially, and athletically. This experience promotes institutional commitment and pride on the part of students, faculty, staff, and alumni.

Head Coach Julie Torbett

Julie Torbett

Julie Torbett, the 2002 Big South Conference Coach of the Year and UNC Asheville's all-time winningest volleyball coach, will begin her 12th year of service to the Bulldog program this season. The 2004 season will be her 11th as head coach and 12th overall at Asheville.

In 2003, Torbett guided the Bulldogs to their first Big South Conference championship game in 11 years. UNC Asheville finished with an 18-10 overall record and in fourth place in the Big South with a 9-5 league mark. The Bulldogs played their best volleyball at the end of the season as they knocked off Birmingham-Southern on its homecourt in the opening round of the tournament and then shocked top-seeded Liberty in the semifinals of the tourney. Torbett's club just missed going to the NCAA Tournament as it took defending Big South champ Winthrop to five games before falling 15-13 in the fifth game.

The 2002 season was a special one for Torbett's program. The Bulldogs were a preseason pick to finish in last place in the Big South. Instead UNCA shocked everyone by producing one of the best turnarounds in NCAA history. The Bulldogs went from a 7-21 campaign in the 2001 season to a 26-8 record. UNCA won its first Big South Conference regular-season championship in 10 years with a 12-2 league record. The Bulldogs claimed the Mercer Invitational and finished runner-up in the High Point Invitational. At the end of the season, Torbett was a unanimous choice for Big South Conference Coach of the Year. In addition, senior libero Leslie Whitfield led the nation in total digs and was an Honorable Mention All-Region performer.

Torbett has been with the UNCA program since 1993 when she joined the staff as an assistant coach before being elevated to the head coaching position in 1994. During her tenure in Asheville, the former Penn State standout has produced a consistent and winning program. The Bulldogs have never finished lower than fifth in the Big South Conference and during the 2000 season, she became the school's all-time winningest coach with a win at Appalachian State. The Pennsylvania native has a career record at UNCA of 171-147.

In 1995, guided the Bulldogs to a 24-11 overall record and a number 10 ranking in the South region. Asheville opened the season impressively by winning the UNC Preview championship at UNC Charlotte and then set a school record by winning eight straight matches to open the season.

In 1996, the Bulldogs finished with a 21-16 overall record and another third-place finish in the Big South Conference. UNCA finished second at the UNC Preview, Furman Invitational and Campbell Invitational. The Bulldogs enjoyed non-conference wins over Appalachian State, UNC Charlotte, East Tennessee State, Furman and Western Carolina. UNCA also enjoyed a win over Big South power UNC Greensboro for the first time in four years.

In 1997, a young UNCA squad finished with a 16-17 overall record despite playing the toughest schedule in school history that included a trip to Penn State, the number one team in the nation and Torbett's alma mater. The Bulldogs still enjoyed some great victories, including wins over Appalachian State, UNC Charlotte and an upset win over Big South regular-season co-champion UMBC. UNCA also took home second place in three different tournaments that season.

The 1998 season was another winning season for the Bulldogs. UNCA had one senior and eight freshmen on its roster but still finished with an 18-13 overall record and advanced to the semifinals of the Big South Conference tournament for the first time in six years. Torbett's charges captured the College of Charleston Invitational without dropping a game and produced the program's third winning season in four years.

In 1999, the Bulldogs finished with a 16-17 overall record but were 8-6 in the Big South Conference and in a tie for third place. UNCA advanced to the semifinals of the league tournament for the second straight year and also knocked off regular-season champ Radford to give the Highlanders their only league loss of the year. The Bulldogs also captured the Mercer Invitational.

Student-athletes have developed under Torbett's guidance. UNCA has had 18 players earn all-conference honors during her time in Asheville. She has coached two Big South Rookie of the Years. Her teams are very good in the classroom as the Bulldogs team GPA is consistently around a 3.00.

Torbett was a middle back defensive specialist for the Penn State University Lady Lions from 1986-1990. While at Penn State, she helped lead the program to four consecutive Atlantic 10 Conference championships. The Lady Lions were ranked in the top 20 and made it to the top 10 her senior year. She played for one of the top coaches in the country, Russ Rose. Rose is very proud of the job Torbett has done at UNC Asheville.

"I am very proud to have had a small part in the development of Julie Torbett as a successful volleyball coach at UNC Asheville," commented Rose, who led Penn State to the national championship in 1999. "Her commitment to being the best she could in both academics and athletics was evident when she was a high school athlete and it continued through her college years. The university community and its athletes are especially fortunate to have Julie directing their programs, and I would continue to expect great things in the into the future."

Head Coach Julie Torbett/Assistant Coach Frederico Santos

Torbett earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science in 1990. An Atlantic 10 Academic All-Conference performer her junior year, Torbett was on the Dean's List for three years and earned a 4.0 grade-point average her sophomore and senior years. She was in the University Scholars Program and the Golden Key National Honor Society.

She was a three-sport letterwinner at Eisenhower High School in Russell, Pa., in volleyball, basketball and track and field. Julie lettered in volleyball for four years, was an all-conference performer every season, was team MVP her last two years, and helped lead the school to three league championships. A standout in basketball and track and field, she holds the school record for the 100-and 300-meter hurdles. In April of 2002, Torbett was honored in her hometown by being placed in the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame for Warren County.

Torbett doesn't just coach volleyball at UNCA. She is the school's Senior Woman's Administrator and works with the Student Athlete Advisory Council. Torbett was also heavily involved with the athletic department's recent successful certification by the NCAA. She has also appeared in several movies filmed in Asheville.

The Penn State graduate serves on the South Regional Advisory Committee for volleyball.

Julie and her husband, Dave, live in Weaverville with their three sons, Nathanael, 10, Colby, 6 and Tristan who is 4.

Head Coach Julie Torbett and her family. Her husband Dave is the public address announcer for UNCA volleyball and basketball. Her sons are Nathaneal, Colby and Tristan.

Frederico Santos

Frederico Santos begins his fifth year as an assistant coach to the UNC Asheville volleyball program.

Santos, a native of Brazil, brings more than 20 years of international playing and coaching experience to the UNCA program. He assists in all phases of the Bulldog program including recruiting, on-court coaching, travel planning and pre-game setup. Santos works with the very successful Biltmore Juniors volleyball club program. In addition, he assists with the UNCA Sports Information Office and oversees Facilities at Justice Center.

Asheville head coach Julie Torbett is delighted to have Santos on the staff.

"I'm very pleased to have Frederico on our staff," stated Torbett. "Frederico has been a big reason for the success in our program. He is very hard worker, and we're lucky to have him as a part of our program."

Santos has been playing volleyball all his life beginning with club teams in Rio de Janeiro. He moved to Reno, Nevada in 1990 and starred for the University of Nevada-Reno club team from 1991-1996. His club team was ranked nationally by USA Today.

His coaching experience includes stops in Brazil, Iceland, Poland, Switzerland and Reno. Santos has worked with the men's and women's Brazilian national teams which are among the best in the world.

Santos, an avid Chicaco Cubs fan, was married in June of 2001 to former UNCA volleyball player, Nathalie Steffen. The couple reside in Asheville.

#5 Talia Ogle Jr. 5'7" OH/DS Hampton Cove, AL/Gardner-Webb

Overview: One of three players from the state of Alabama on 2004 UNC Asheville roster...played her best volleyball at the end of the season and helped lead the Bulldogs to the Big South Conference championship game...versatile player who can be used as either an outside hitter or a defensive specialist. 2003: Transfer from Gardner-Webb who provided an immediate impact as an outside hitter...played in 99 games... averaged 1.38 kills per game and 2.65 digs per game...had a season-high 23 digs and 15 kills in first round of Big South Tournament against Birmingham-Southern...was a standout at Big South Tournament registering three straight games in double-figures in digs...finished season with 137 kills and 262 digs...had three service aces against North Carolina A&T and Radford University... had 17 block assists averaging 0.18 blocks per game. Before UNCA: Enjoyed a standout season at Gardner-Webb in 2002...led team in kills (3.19) and digs (3.14)...had an excellent high school and club career...played at Huntsville HS where she was an all-state performer in 2000...also earned all-city honors as a senior...named to all-tournament team for state playoffs in 2000...named best offensive and defensive player...helped lead club team to national tournament in 2001 where they finished ninth nationally. Coach's Comments: "We were really fortunate when Talia came to our program from Gardner-Webb. She got better as the year went on and was unstoppable at the conference tournament. Talia loves UNCA and has the desire and energy that makes her a valuable asset to the program. I foresee her continuing as an outside hitter or defensive specialist this season."

#11 Elif Unlu So. 5'11" RH Izmir, Turkey/American Collegiate Institute

Overview: Should compete for all-conference honors this season after an excellent rookie season in 2003...talented hitter who will only be better in 2004. 2003: Member of Big South All-Rookie Team... was one of UNCA's most prolific attackers...second on the team in kills with 285, averaging 2.54 kills per game...had 15 matches with kills in double-figures, including stretch of six straight...had 20 kills against Virginia Commonwealth...very talented defensively with 14 matches in double-figures with digs...averaged 2.11 digs per game with a career-high 18 digs against UNC Wilmington...contributed 56 block assists and had a season-high six against Birmingham-Southern...led team with 42 service aces and tied a school record with seven service aces against Montreat...saw action in all 112 games. Before UNCA: Member of Turkish Junior National team in 1999, 2000 and 2002...was MVP of club team in 1999 and school team in 2000...led national team to first place finish in 2000 and was named best hitter. Coach's Comments: "Elif has been prepared for college in the US for many years and is a gifted student as well as a volleyball player. She is one of the friendliest and most appreciative players to wear a UNC Asheville jersey, which makes coaching her an absolute joy. Elif will be a much better player this season and will be ready physically for the demanding schedule we play. I think she is a strong contender for the right side as well as outside position."

Allison Lambert Jr. 6'1" OH Austin, Texas/Arkansas State

Overview: Transfer from Arkansas State and should provide immediate impact as an outside hitter. Before UNCA: Lettered for two season at Arkansas State University in Jonesboro, Ark...played in 26 games and had 21 kills for team that went 21-11...contributed 16 digs and seven service aces...as a freshman in 2002, she was sidelined most of the year with injury...played in 14 matches, collecting 37 kills and 17 blocks...played in high school at Hays HS in Austin...was a four-year letterwinner and led her team to a 24-5 record senior season...helped lead team to area and district championship. Coach's Comment: "I am pleased to have added Allison to our program. She is a tall, athletic player who was highly recruited out of high school and played at a high level with Arkansas State the past two years. She will bring both experience and energy to the team. I am hopeful she will earn a position and elevate our level of play at the net."

Ashley Wrightenberry Fr. 6'0" OH/MH Asheville, N.C./Roberson HS

Overview: Will compete for playing time right away as either an outside hitter or in the middle...local product who had a great prep career at T.C. Roberson HS...played club for Biltmore team coached by Asheville assistant Fred Santos. Before UNCA: One of the best players to ever play at T.C. Roberson HS where she earned team MVP honors as a sophomore, junior and senior...all-conference for three straight seasons...made the Asheville Citizen-Times All-WNC team junior and senior years....made the Hendersonville Times-News All-Area team junior and senior years...led Roberson in kills, digs and blocks as a sophomore, junior and senior...also lettered in track & field and soccer. Coach's Quote: "Ashley is an incredible local player who has developed tremendously at T.C. Roberson and the Biltmore Juniors Volleyball Club. We are fortunate to have such a talented player in our own town and excited that she decided to stay close to home. I look forward to coaching her for the next four years, and I think she'll earn her way into the lineup this season."

Danielle Hartman Fr. 5'7" S/DS Morganton, N.C./Freedom HS

Overview: Local product from nearby Freedom HS in Morganton...expected to help out in the back row as a defensive specialist and serve as a back-up setter to Amanda Wiles...good athlete who played for assistant coach Fred Santos with Biltmore Juniors. Before UNCA: Outstanding career at Freedom HS for coach Joanna Crew...led team to 16-2 record senior season...was team MVP senior year and was also the Northwestern Conference Player of the Year senior season...named to All-Area team by Charlotte Observer. Coach's Quote: "I expect Danielle will make considerable improvements this year as a defensive specialist. She is quick and works hard and has good fundamentals. Danielle enjoyed a great high school career at Freedom High School and also played with Ashley Wrightenberry on Biltmore Juniors. She will also serve as a reserve setter this season."

Melinda Lee Fr. 5'5" DS Lexington, S.C./White Knoll HS

Overview: Talented player who will compete for playing time in the back row and as a libero. Before UNCA: Played at White Knoll HS in Lexington, S.C. for head coach David Tiffner...was team MVP as a sophomore, junior and senior...earned All-Region and All-Conference honors as a senior...good athlete who lettered in track and field and basketball at White Knoll...enjoyed solid career for the South Carolina Juniors club team. Coach's Quote: "Melinda is a very talented back row player who has trained hard to achieve a high level of performance. She played libero for South Carolina Juniors and has a strong desire to continue playing in college. I look for her to compete for playing time in the most sought after position on our team - libero."

2004 UNC Asheville Volleyball Preview

The 2004 UNC Asheville volleyball team is looking to build on its success of the past two seasons.

Two years ago, the Bulldog program was the most improved team in the country with a 26-8 overall record and Big South Conference regular-season championship. Last year, Julie Torbett's club shook off injuries and peaked at the right time as Asheville advanced to the Big South Conference championship match for the first time in 11 years. The Bulldogs pulled off two great wins in the tournament before losing in the title match to defending champion Winthrop in five games. Asheville finished the 2003 season with an 18-10 overall record.

Torbett is proud of what her program has accomplished the past two years and hopes to accomplish more in 2004.

"I'm very happy with the way we finished the season," stated Torbett. "We came so close to accomplishing our ultimate goal of going to the NCAA Tournament.

"Even though it was a tough loss to Winthrop, I think it shows our players that the goal of going to the NCAA tournament is attainable," added Torbett. "We're looking forward to the upcoming season but we also realize we are a new team and can't rely on the success of the past."

The Bulldogs return experience from last year's club. Asheville has three starters and seven letterwinners back from 2003. However, the Bulldogs will have to replace two all-conference players from last year in Frida Sigurdardottir and Kelly Budnik. Both were all-conference players and will be missed.

"We lost two great players in Frida and Kelly," commented Torbett. "Both of them had great careers at UNC Asheville and will be hard to replace.

"However, we have a solid nucleus from last year's club, and we like the new players who have come into the program," added Torbett. "We need to stay away from injuries like always, but we have the potential to be a good team."

Heading up the list of returnees is junior setter Amanda Wiles. Wiles enjoyed an excellent 2003 campaign as she earned second team all-conference honors and took a spot on the Big South All-Tournament team. She has remarkable versatility and has produced six triple-doubles (double figures in kills, assists & digs) in her career.

"Amanda Wiles is one of the best setters in the Big South Conference," declared Torbett. "She does some amazing things with the volleyball.

"Obviously, Amanda is a critical player for us," added Torbett. "I need her to take more of a leadership role this year on the court."

Setter Amanda Wiles earned all-conference honors last season.

Wiles will be setting to a pair of players - juniors Rose Butler and Talia Ogle - who she has known for a long time. The trio played USA Volleyball in Huntsville, Alabama with Butler and Wiles playing for the same high school. Butler can play either on the outside or in the middle. She battled through injuries last year. Butler played her best volleyball at the end of the season and should be ready to have a great 2004 season.

"Rose did the best she could last year with her injury," said Torbett. "This year I think she'll have a great season because she's close to 100 percent physically. I see her earning a spot as middle blocker but can always be used on the outside.

"It's great that Rose and Amanda have tremendous chemistry because they've played together for so long," added Torbett.

2004 UNC Asheville Volleyball Preview

Ogle transferred to Asheville from Gardner-Webb and was another player who saved her best play at the end of the season. She's a versatile player who can play in the front row as an outside hitter or in the back as a defensive specialist. Ogle was second on the team in digs (2.65).

"Talía played a lot of different spots last season while we worked her into our system," commented Torbett. "She was unstoppable at the Big South Tournament and was a big reason why we got to the championship match.

"Like Rose, Talía has played with Amanda Wiles before coming to UNCA and they have great chemistry between them," Torbett said.

Sophomore right-side hitter Elif Unlu was a member of the Big South All-Rookie team last year and was second on the team in kills (2.54) and third in digs (2.11). She has a powerful jump serve and led the team in service aces with 42. Unlu tied a school record for service aces in a match with seven against Montreat College. She could play either on the outside or right side this season.

"Elif showed a lot of potential last season and peaked at the Big South Conference Tournament," stated Torbett. "She's worked hard this summer to improve her game. We believe Elif will have a great season."

Junior Krysti Havens is slated to be the Bulldogs' libero. Havens has played in the back row during her career and is one of the best servers on the team. She will also serve as a co-captain with Amanda Wiles.

"Krysti is so mentally tough and is a real leader for our team," said Torbett. "The libero will be a competitive spot this year, so Krysti will have to continue to work hard."

Senior Rory Kelly transferred to UNC Asheville last year from St. Andrews and saw limited action in 2003. She improved rapidly in the spring and could be in the front row this season. Kelly was voted as the Bulldogs Most Improved Player in the spring by her teammates.

"Rory improved in all areas of the game last spring," Torbett pointed out. "We believe she'll be in the running for a starting position."

Junior Megan Murphy has been a valuable reserve the past two years. She'll be used in the back row this season and as the Bulldogs back-up setter.

"Megan is one of the smartest players I've ever been around," declared Torbett. "She always knows what's going on in the match. Megan is a good defensive player, and we'll use her in the back row."

Sophomore Jessica Salyers didn't play much last year until the end of the season but provided the Bulldogs a spark off the bench with her serving.

Junior Rose Butler will be a key player for the Bulldogs in 2004.

"Jessica has a great serve, and we're looking to use her some as a serving specialist this season," commented Torbett.

Four newcomers are on the UNC Asheville roster this season, and all four should be able to make a contribution to the Bulldogs this year.

Junior Allison Lambert is a transfer from Arkansas State and the 6-1 outside hitter is expected to make an impact for the Bulldogs.

"Allison was highly recruited out of high school and has experience of playing at a winning program," stated Torbett. "We're hoping Allison can help fill the void left by Frida Sigurdardottir or Kelly Budnik."

Freshman Ashley Wrightenberry is a local player from

Junior Krysti Havens will be UNC Asheville's libero this year.

Roberson HS who will compete for playing time as an outside and middle hitter.

"We're so excited to have Ashley as a part of our program," said Torbett. "We believe Ashley is going to be a great player at UNC Asheville. She'll have a chance to play this season either on the outside or in the middle."

Freshman Danielle Hartman can be used as a defensive specialist and as a back-up setter. She hails from Freedom HS in Morganton.

"Danielle is very quick and a hard worker," explained Torbett. "She's also someone who will be a back-up setter but we'll use her more as a defensive specialist."

Freshman Melinda Lee comes to Asheville from White Knoll HS in Columbia, S.C. She will also compete for playing time as a defensive specialist.

"Melinda is a well-trained player who loves to play defense," stated Torbett. "She's a fundamentally sound player who will be a good back row player this year."

The Justice Center will be site of the 2004 Big South Conference Volleyball Tournament and highlights this year's schedule.

The 35-match schedule will see Asheville play in four tournaments during the regular season plus 11 home matches.

The Big South Conference Tournament will start on Tuesday, Nov. 16th with four quarterfinal matches on campus sites. The four winners of those matches will come to Asheville the weekend of Nov. 20-21. There will be two semifinal matches on Saturday, Nov. 20th with the championship match slated Sunday at 2 p.m.

"We're really looking forward to hosting the Big South Conference Tournament," declared Torbett.

The season gets under way on Sept. 1 when the Bulldogs play at Appalachian State. Asheville's home opener is the next day (Sept. 2) when it hosts David Lipscomb at 5 p.m.

The Bulldogs first tournament of the season will take place Labor Day Weekend (Sept. 3-4) at N.C. State. UNCA faces Elon and N.C. State on Sept. 3 and UNC Wilmington and Wofford the following day.

Torbett's club participates in the Campbell Invitational the next weekend (Sept. 10-11). Asheville plays Campbell on Sept. 10th and Wofford and Western Carolina the next day.

The Bulldogs open Big South Conference play against Charleston Southern on Sept. 14th at Justice Center. UNCA entertains Furman a week later (Sept. 21) before heading to the UNC Greensboro Invitational (Sept. 24-25). The Bulldogs play Memphis and UNC Greensboro on Sept. 24th and Florida Atlantic and Morgan State on Sept. 25th.

Asheville plays at North Carolina A&T on Sept. 28th and then plays in its final tournament of the year (Oct. 1-2) at Maryland-Eastern Shore. The other teams in the tourney are Delaware State, Niagara and St. John's.

The Bulldogs finally have a chance to play at home in October as they'll play five straight home matches starting with a match against defending Big South champion Winthrop (Oct. 15) and finishing up with Birmingham-Southern (Oct. 23). Asheville also plays mountain rival Western Carolina (Oct. 19) during that stretch.

UNCA finishes the regular season at Birmingham-Southern on Nov. 13th.

2004 UNC Asheville Volleyball Preview

"We're on the road for most of the first part of the season but luckily we're at home a much of the last month of the season," said Torbett. "We want to peak at the end of the season like we did last year and hopefully play a few more matches at home during the Big South Conference Tournament."

The Bulldogs are a preseason pick to finish in fourth place this season. Asheville came in fourth last year with a 9-5 league mark but made it to the championship match. Torbett looks at two-time defending champ Winthrop and last year's regular season champ Liberty as the two teams to beat this year.

"Liberty and Winthrop have the most talent returning," declared Torbett. "I think those two teams will be tough to beat this year as well as Coastal Carolina."

"We have a well-balanced team this season," added Torbett. "I think everyone on the roster can make a contribution for us in some way. If everyone is playing and playing well we should have a good year."

Sophomore Elif Unlu was an all-rookie selection in the Big South in 2003.

Chancellor

James Mullen

James H. Mullen, Jr., was elected Chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Asheville on April 9, 1999 by the University of North Carolina Board of Governors and took office August 1. UNC Asheville is the designated liberal arts campus of the University of North Carolina system.

Previously, Dr. Mullen served as senior vice president and director of Project 2002 at Trinity College, a prestigious liberal arts college in Hartford, Connecticut. There, he was responsible for Trinity's comprehensive master plan for the future and shepherding a $300-million public/private revitalization now transforming the neighborhood surrounding the college.

Dr. Mullen joined Trinity College in 1995 as vice president for strategic planning and community relations, overseeing long-range planning, legislative and community relations, and Trinity's neighborhood revitalization initiative. In 1996 he was promoted to vice president for student services, where he was responsible for shaping and administering all policies and programs affecting student life at Trinity.

Dr. Mullen was a sought-after lecturer in Trinity College's Public Policy Department, where his work focused on the American presidency. He holds an appointment as Professor in the UNC Asheville department of Political Science.

A native of Holyoke, Massachusetts, he majored in history at the College of the Holy Cross in Massachusetts, graduating magna cum laude in 1980. He earned a master's degree in public policy from Harvard University's John F. Kennedy School of Government in 1984, and a doctorate in higher education from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst, in 1994.

An avid proponent of community service, Dr. Mullen serves on various boards including the United Way of Asheville and Buncombe County; the Asheville Symphony; the Asheville Area Chamber of Commerce; WCQS Public Radio; Asheville-Buncombe VISION, Inc.; the North Carolina Arboretum; the Western North Carolina Community Development Association; and the City of Asheville Sustainable Economic Development Task Force. He is also a member of the Leadership and Institutional Effectiveness Committee of the American Council on Education.

He and his wife, Mari, have two young children: Mary Frances and James Charles.

Athletics Director

Janet Cone

Janet Cone joined UNC Asheville as Athletics Director in April 2004. Previously, she served as Associate Athletics Director at Samford University in Birmingham, Ala. Samford, which has 4,500 students, competes at the NCAA Division I level and offers 17 men's and women's sports.

Cone joined Samford in 1996, recruiting and coaching Samford's first women's basketball team. She coached the Samford Bulldogs for five years, and then moved up the ranks to become the Assistant Athletics Director/Senior Women's Administrator and then Associate Athletics Director.

Cone is no stranger to Western North Carolina. Earlier in her career, she coached women's basketball at Western Carolina University and Mars Hill College.

Cone graduated magna cum laude from Furman University in 1978, earning a degree in health and physical education, and lettering in basketball and field hockey.

She earned a master's degree in physical education from the University of South Carolina in 1986.

She is a member of the Women's Sports Foundation, National Association of Collegiate Athletic Administrators, National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators and the Executive Women's Golf Association.
